Arc welding refers to a group of welding processes in which heating of the metals is accomplished by an electric arc, as shown in Figure 1. Some arc welding operations also apply pressure during the process and most utilize a filler metal. Resistance welding (RW). Resistance welding achieves coalescence using heat from electrical

Short Description: ADR-30000 Capacitor Discharge Energy Storage Spot Projection Welding Machine The principle of the ADR-30000 capacitor discharge spot welder is to charge and store a group of high-capacity capacitors through a small transformer in advance, and then discharge and weld the welding parts through a high-power welding resistance transformer.

resistance welding technology. Even nowadays there is still a strong demand for resistance welding machines with alternating current technology. These controls work synchronously with the mains and take the energy directly from the mains. The mains must therefore be well regulated and able to supply the energy.

Boyle also notes that high demand usually translates into a need for high-speed production, which can limit the number of welding technologies considered or require large capital investment for multiple machines. Resistance welding on ...
