

Why do Indonesian batteries need a battery energy storage system?

Batteries are required to provide constant electricity supply to renewable energy plants, which are primarily intermittent, such as solar and wind power plants. The agreement was made with other state-owned bodies, such as the Indonesian Battery Corporation, to build the Battery Energy Storage System by 2022.

What is a battery energy storage system?

The new energy storage system is a device that enables energy from renewables to be stored and then released based on the needs of the customer. The Battery Energy Storage System is a pilot project and is a concrete example of the government's attempt to shift away from diesel-generated power and transition to cleaner energy.

Who is involved in the battery energy storage system project?

Subsidiaries of PLN involved in the Battery Energy Storage System project happen to be the primary electricity providers in Indonesia, such as PT Indonesia Power, PT Pembangunan Jawa Bali, and others. The plan to develop an energy storage system aligns with the positive growth in the renewable energy industry.

Why is energy storage important?

Energy storage is one of the key elements of the transition toward a sustainable energy model. It provides flexibility to the electricity system because of its ability to guarantee a continuous energy supply in response to variations in energy generation or consumption, and it contributes to the efficient management of electricity networks.

How much electricity storage is needed in 2035?

The need for storage increases from 2030 onwards with capex of electricity storage grows to around USD 82 billion in 2035 and further declines to USD 42 billion in 2050. Started in 2013, provides low-interest loan and ? repayment subsidies.
